Waldo Riter, son of Mrs. S. W. Riter of this city, left yesterday for Nogales, Arizona where he goes to join his troop from which he received a leave of absence for ten days, in order to attend the funeral services of his brother, Levi. He was accompanied to the train by B. F. Riter, who takes a great interest in the welfare of the sons of his late brother.

The Democratic midday rally held in front of the Tabernacle yesterday at high noon was attended by about 150 persons who went out of curiosity to know what would be said in justification for the vacillating policies which have characterized the Wilson administration the past four years. There was a former Bull Moose by the name of Nelson present and to hear him rave over his recent conversion to the Democratic party was to make one laugh. Senator Shafroth of Colorado made a fairly good talk, and although he said he would talk but a few minutes he hammered away for about an hour until Chairman Owen began to appear nervous and look as if he thought the visitor would talk on forever.
